addressee unopened and without delay by the police officer or other person in charge of such jail, asylum or other place and the Lokayukta may, if satisfied that it is necessary so to do, treat such letter as a complaint made in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2).

- (4) The complaint shall deposit in such manner and with such authority or agency as may be prescribed a sum of one thousand rupees to be available for disposal under section 21 :

Provided that the Lokayukta may for sufficient cause to be recorded in writing exempt a complainant from the requirement of depositing the sum under this section.

- (5) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 10 or any other provision of this Act, every person who wilfully or maliciously makes any false allegations in a complaint under this Act, shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

- (6) The offence punishable under sub-section (5) shall be cognizable.

Procedure in respect of investigations.

10. (1) Where the Lokayukta decides to conduct any investigation under this Act, he, --

- (a) shall forward a copy of the complaint or, in the case of any investigation which he proposes to conduct on his own motion, a statement setting out the grounds therefor to the public functionary concerned and the competent authority concerned; K
- (b) shall afford to the public functionary concerned an opportunity to offer his comments on such complaint or statement ; and
- (c) may make such orders as to the safe custody of documents relevant to the investigation, as he deems fit.

- (2) Every such investigation shall be conducted in private and, in particular the identity of the complainant and of the public functionary affected by the investigation shall not be disclosed to the public or the press or published in any manner whether before, during or after the investigation.

Provided that, the Lokayukta may conduct any investigation relating to a matter of definite public importance in public, if he, for reasons to be recorded in writing, thinks fit to do so.

- (3) Save as aforesaid, the procedure for conducting any such investigation shall be such as the Lokayukta considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

- (4) The Lokayukta may, in his discretion, refuse to investigate or cease to investigate any complaint, if in his opinion --

- (a) the complaint is frivolous or vexatious, or is not made in good faith ; or
- (b) there are no sufficient grounds for investigating or, as the case may be, for continuing the investigation ; or
- (c) other remedies are available to the complainant and in the circumstances of the case it would be more proper for the complainant to avail of such remedies.

- (5) In any case where the Lokayukta decides not to entertain a complaint or to discontinue any investigation in respect of a complaint, he shall record his reasons therefor and communicate the same to the complainant and the public functionary concerned.

- (6) The conduct of an investigation under this Act in respect of any action shall not affect such action, or any power or duty of any public functionary to take further action with respect to any matter subject to the investigation.

(7) Whoever discloses to the public or to the press any information or publishes such information in contravention of the provisions of this section shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years and shall also be liable to fine.

✓ 11. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, for the purpose of investigation (including the preliminary inquiry, before such investigation) under this Act, the Lokayukta may require any public servant or any other person who in his opinion is able to furnish information or produce documents relevant to the investigation, to furnish any such information or produce any such document.

Evidence.

this Act and the Stat Government or any public servant shall not be entitled in relation to any such investigation to any such privilege in respect of the production of documents or the giving of evidence as is allowed by any enactment or by any rule of law in legal proceedings.

(8) No person shall be required or authorised by virtue of this Act to furnish any such information or answer any such question or produce so much of an document, --

(a) as might prejudice the security or defence or international relations of India (including India's relations with the Government of any other country or with any international organisation), or the investigation or detection of crime; or

(b) as might involve the disclosure of proceedings, other than the decision, of the Cabinet or Council of Ministers of the State Government or any committee thereof, if any ;

and for the purpose of this sub-section a certificate issued by the Chief Secretary certifying that any information, answer or portion of a document is of the nature specified in clause (a) or clause (b), shall be binding and conclusive.

Report of Lokayukta in case of the Chief Minister.

12. (1) If after investigation of any action in respect of which a complaint involving an allegation has been made against the Chief Minister or against the Chief Minister in conjunction with any other public functionary, the Lokayukta is satisfied that such allegation can be substantiated, either wholly or partly against the Chief Minister, he shall, by a report in writing, communicate his findings, alongwith the relevant documents, materials and other evidence to the Chief Minister.

(2) On receipt of the report under sub-section (1), the Chief Minister shall cause the same to be placed, without delay, before the Council of Ministers.

13. (1) If, in any case to which section 12 does not apply the Lokayukta after investigation of any action in respect of which a complaint involving an allegation has been or can be or could have been made, is satisfied that such allegation can be substantiated, either wholly or partly, he shall by a report in writing, communicate his findings alongwith the relevant documents, materials and other evidence, to the competent authority.

Findings and recommendations to be communicated to competent authority by a report.

(2) The competent authority shall examine the report forwarded to it under sub-section (1) and intimate, within three months of the date of receipt of the report, the Lokayukta the action taken or proposed to be taken on the basis of the report.

14.(1) The Lokayukta shall present annually a consolidated report of the performance of his functions under this Act to the Governor, and the Governor shall, on receipt of such report, cause a copy thereof together with an explanatory memorandum to be laid before the State Legislature.

Annual report of Lokayukta

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 10, the Lokayukta may at his discretion make available from time to time, the substance of cases closed or otherwise disposed of by him which may appear to him to be general public, academic or professional interest, in such manner and to such persons as he may deem appropriate.

15 (1) The Lokayukta may appoint or authorise any officer subordinate to him to appoint, officers, and other employees to assist the Lokayukta in the discharge of his functions under this Act.

Staff of Lokayukta

- (2) The categories of officers and employees who may be appointed under sub-section (1), their salaries, allowances and other conditions of service and the administrative powers of the Lokayukta shall be such as may be prescribed after consultation with the Lokayukta.
- (3) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), the Lokayukta may, for the purpose of conducting investigations under this Act, utilise the services of, --
 - (i) any officer or investigation agency of the State Government;
 - (ii) any officer or investigation agency of the Central Government, with the consent of that Government obtained in accordance with article 258A of the Constitution ; or
 - (iii) any other person or agency.
- (4) For the purpose of investigating into any matter, any officer, agency or person whose services are utilised under sub-section (3) may, subject to the direction of the Lokayukta, --
 - (a) summon and enforce the attendance of any person and examine him ;
 - (b) require the discovery and production of any document; and
 - (c) requisition any public record or copy thereof from any office.
- (5) The provisions of sections 11 and 16 shall apply in relation to any information furnished to any officer, agency or person whose services are utilised under sub-section (3) as they apply in relation to the information furnished to the Lokayukta during the course of the investigation of any action by him.

Secrecy of information.

16. (1) Any information, obtained by the Lokayukta or members of his staff in the course of, or for the purposes of, any investigation under this Act, and any evidence recorded in connection with such information, shall, subject to the provisions of the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 10, be treated as confidential and notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, no court shall be entitled to compel the Lokayukta, or any public servant to give evidence relating to such information or produce the evidence so recorded.
- (2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall apply to the disclosure of any information of particulars, --
 - (a) in any report to be made on an investigation under this Act or for any action or proceeding to be taken on such report ; or
 - (b) for purposes of any proceedings for an offence under the Official Secrets Act, 1923, or an offence of giving or fabricating false evidence under the Indian Penal Code or for purposes of any proceedings under section 17 ; or
 - (c) for such other purposes as may be prescribed.
- (3) An officer or other authority prescribed in this behalf may give notice in writing to the Lokayukta with respect to any document or information specified in the notice or any class of documents so specified that in the opinion of the State Government the disclosure of the documents or information or of documents or information of that class would be contrary to public interest and where such notice is given, nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorising or requiring the Lokayukta, or any member of his staff to disclose or communicate to any person any document or information specified in the notice or any document or information of a class so specified.

(3) The provisions of section 199 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, shall apply in relation to an offence under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) as they apply in relation to an offence referred to in sub-section (2) of the said section 199, subject to the modification that no complaint in respect of such offence shall be made by the public prosecutor except with the previous sanction of the Lokayukta

18. (1) No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Lokayukta or against any officer, employee, agency or person referred to in section 15 in respect of anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act. Protection.

(2) No proceedings of the Lokayukta shall be held bad for want of form and except on the ground of jurisdiction, no proceedings or decision of the Lokayukta shall be liable to be challenged, reviewed, quashed or called in question in any court.

19. (1) The Governor may, by notification published in the Official Gazette and after consultation with the Lokayukta confer on the Lokayukta such additional functions in relation to the eradication or corruption as may be specified in the notification.

Conferment of additional functions on Lokayukta.

(2) The Governor may, by order in writing and after consultation with the Lokayukta confer on the Lokayukta such powers of a supervisory nature over agencies, authorities or officers set up, constituted or appointed by the State Government for the eradication of corruption as may be specified in the order.

(3) The Governor may, by order in writing and subject to such conditions and limitations as may be specified in the order, require the Lokayukta to investigate any action (being action in respect of which a complaint may be made under this Act to the Lokayukta) and notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Lokayukta shall comply with such order.

(4) When any additional functions are conferred on the Lokayukta under sub-section (1) or when the Lokayukta is to investigate any action under sub-section (3), the Lokayukta shall exercise the same powers and discharge the same functions as he would in the case of any investigation made on a complaint involving an allegation, and the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly.

Power to exclude complaints against certain classes of public functionaries.

20. (1) The State Government may, on the recommendation of the Lokayukta and on being satisfied that it is necessary or expedient in the public interest so to do, exclude, by notification in the Official Gazette, complaints, involving allegations against persons belonging to any class of public functionaries specified in the notification, from the jurisdiction of the Lokayukta.

(2) Every notification issued under sub-section (1) shall be laid as soon as may be after it is issued before the State Legislature while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following the State Legislature agree in making any modification in the notification or agree that the notification, should not be made, and notify decision in the Official Gazette, the notification shall, from the date of publication of such decision, have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done by virtue of that notification.

Disposal of deposit.

21. The sum deposited under section 9 by a complainant shall, --

- (a) in a case where the complaint is refused to be investigated or ceased to be investigated under sub-section (4) of section 10, stand forfeited to the State Government.
- (b) if the Lokayukta, for reasons to be recorded in writing so directs, be utilised for compensating the public functionary complained against, and
- (c) in any other case be refunded to the complainant.

Power to delegate.

22. The Lokayukta may, by a general or a special order in writing, direct that any powers conferred or duties imposed on him by or under this Act (except the power to make reports to the Governor under sections 12 and 13) may also be exercised or discharged by such of the officers, employees or agencies referred to in section 15 as may be specified in the order.

Power to make rules.

23. (1) The Governor may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions, such rules may provide for, --

- (a) the authorities for the purpose required to be prescribed under sub-clause (b) of clause (3) of section 2;
